Visiting London with Children? Here's a guide!

- §1 The Barbican Centre has its annual children's festival, "Summer in the City", on 1-5 August. Each day's timetable is handed out as you enter. It may include magic shows, face painting, hat making and music. One ticket (£4.50 for children, £1 for adults, and no children or adults allowed on their own) buys a full day's activities so you can try out all sorts of things.
- §2 At the South Bank Centre young dancers can join in "Sleeping Beauty" workshops with the English National Ballet on 3 August. On 4 August Peter Badejo encourages all comers to join African dance and there's outdoor dance, theatre and music for all the family. For example, on 21 August a dance show from Cuba will be presented.
- §3 At London Zoo there is a special exhibition about animals which have disappeared as well as animals in danger of disappearing. There are life-size moving models of dinosaurs, but you can also see living examples of endangered species such as tigers and bird-eating spiders. While you may not want to get too close to these, there are plenty of friendly animals in the new Children's Zoo which will be happy to let you get close to them.
- §4 The Tower Hill Pageant is a museum showing the history of the City of London. Outside, the Town Crier calls visitors to "Coin Striking" when children can beat out copies of old coins in metal using traditional methods. Musicians and street performers will also be appearing throughout the summer.
- §5 The Museum of the Moving Image is about the cinema. Its guides are actors dressed as cowboys and film stars. You can learn about film-making in special classes and there is a special exhibition at eye-level for children under one meter tall.
- §6 If adults are ready for a rest why not book a Sunday lunch at the Russell Hotel? The Jumping Jelly Bean Club offers an exercise class for children while you have a drink. Sit down to lunch together (£14.25 for adults, £3.95 for a children's menu). Then, while you have your coffee, the Jumping Jelly Bean Club watches children's films. The Club is held every Sunday at lunchtime and it's free to children with families eating in the hotel.
